INSTRUCTIONS & SURVEY QUESTIONS

- Survey results will be used during the workshop to assist you to build your brand persona, promise and brand statement. Please bring results to the workshop.
- Use a tool such as Survey Monkey and include a cover letter message with a response deadline.
- Send to 10+ people (more is better), from different audiences (professional, personal, etc.) so that you can analyze trends and find themes across different groups.
- Analyze data and try to identify themes. This analysis will assist in two ways: one, confirm that their view of your brand is consistent with your own. Or two, it will provide you guidance as to where there may be any disconnect between your brand view and their perceptions. If the latter, the workshop (or personalized coaching session) will help you build a plan to help change their perception of your brand.
